

Figure F. Serum creatine phosphokinase (CPK) and lactate dehydrogenase (LDH) activities for sea otters that lived (A and C) and died (B and D) relative to the number of days after the spill. These were the final values measured in the rehabilitation centers prior to the otters' release or death. The dashed lines indicate the maximum range of normal values.